Fly the London Eye

I think one of the best ways to start a visit to any City is a general overview - and where better to get your bearings over London than the London Eye? On a clear day you can see as far as Hampstead Heath.

Andrea, Diane, Katherine, Vanessa and Laura take flight over London

Mela meal -All too much for Katherine!

The Tower of London Tour with Bob the Beefeater

Our Buckingham Palace Tour begins here

Queens visitors in Palace gardens!

And Yes - he does! He told us! Bob also threatened to eat small children who misbehaved - Hence miracles ensued!

Seriously the Tower of London visit is much enhanced with a Beef-Eater Tour - they all add their own personal touch to the grisly tales of treason and death and other wrongdoings within the walls since it was built by the Normans in 1066

Never an honourer of convention Laura chose this unusual vantage point to view Buckingham Palace before our tour - and had this enthusiastic reaction to the Summer Exhibition - Bambina!

Theatreland - Into SoHo for Grease, Priscilla and naturally - Mamma Mia!

My Queens of the Desert - for a day!

No trip to London could be complete without at least one trip to the theatre - we went for the old favourite musicals but they are so well produced and feel good - we felt good about it - and Katherine was "hand-jiving" for the rest of the trip after her visit to "High School Musical" - the original! Grease - is the word!

Henley Royal Regatta - July 2010 - The Sun Shone!

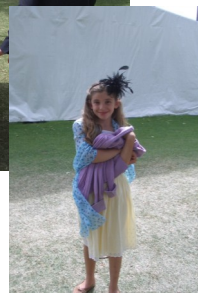

John, Andrea, Katherine and Diane by the Bandstand
As a Veteran rower my husband's social event of the year is

As we were there on the final day we saw the Silver Ware being taken to the Winner's Enclosure for Prize Giving

Henley Royal Regatta and on 5th July and Katherine was able to celebrate her 10th (well almost!) birthday in the Stewards Enclosure on Family Day - she was, of course, a delightful companion and a credit to us all

A rainy day in London town - we went to Harrods - where else?

Harrods is the most famous store in London - if not in the world - and we particularly enjoyed the famous Food Hall and the Pet Shop - fortunately Vanessa and Laura managed to dissuade me from bringing a puppy home!
Can dogs earn Airmiles?
